

LOIS MACAULAY DESIGN SHOWROOM

The Design Jones

Definition: a mysterious inspiration referencing myth or history that opens a compulsion to create.

Behavior: Ignites unexpectedly and extinguishes when fully explored.

New Design Jones: the capricious master of romance, Eros, aims arrows at heart and home, inspiring a sensuous new setting for a sparklier flirtier self.

Love Letter Desk, see-through acrylic with white marble top is a heart-stealer. Champagne dressing mirror with deco details adds even more glamour.

Matinee Sofa – our crescent-shaped down-plumped modernization of an 18th century style has charisma. We're falling in love with this parisian damask fabric for chairs and pillows too!

Plea to the God of Love – Fragonard reproduced on canvas, lovingly over-painted, lavishly framed, features our muse Eros at full moon having drawn a young lovely into the garden....

Call 416 921 1043 for sizes, prices and purchasing information.

Watch for your invitation to our Eros-themed salons: "What Have You Done To My Heart?" a report on our field trip to Paris in April. July 22

"Gilbert Reid on Flirting", a compression of his scintillating series for CBC radio. September 23

The Paris Bench- rest a pampered foot on the 30's style white bench with blue/bronze moderne fabric.

The Coquette Bench- irresistible ice pink silk velvet on carved legs. Even the puppy adores it.
